

Movimiento Estudiantil Chicana/o de Aztlán de California State University, Fullerton

May 12, 2007

Dear Advisor,

On Monday, November 19, 2007 M.E.Ch.A de Cal State Fullerton will be hosting its 16th Annual High School Conference. This year's theme is "P.R.I.D.E Power, Respect, Identity, and Development through Education. Poder Vive En Ti: Youth Empowerment," which focuses on encouraging higher education, self-empowerment, community involvement, and social consciousness about contemporary issues in the community.

The following are the goals for this year's conference:

- Encourage youth to pursue higher education.
- Provide information regarding accessibility to institutions of higher education.
Offer a wide range of workshops regarding admissions, financial aid, social, cultural, and identity issues.
- Introduce high school students to Chicana/o and Latina/o role models and mentors.

On behalf of M.E.Ch.A de CSUF we would like to invite your school to participate in this year's conference. The conference will begin at 7:30am and end at 3:30pm and is free to all attendees. The conference will consist of two Keynote speakers, three workshop sessions, discussion groups, a college fair and entertainment. In addition, breakfast and lunch will be provided.

Enclosed you will find a registration form with important information that must be RETURNED by Thursday November 1, 2007. There is no limit to the amount of students you can bring, in fact we encourage you to bring anyone you believe would benefit from our conference, but please RSVP. Only one registration form per school is necessary. We have also included a brief description of the tentative workshops for your review.
